AMCA INTERNATIONAL REVISES AMCA STANDARD 99

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, Ill., Dec. 1, 2016 - The Air Movement and Control Association (AMCA) International Inc. announces the revision of Standard 99, Standards Handbook.

The new designation for Standard 99 is AMCA Standard 99-16. AMCA Standard 99-16 was adopted by AMCA membership on October 31, 2016, and It was approved by the American National Standards Institute on November 10, 2016.

AMCA 99 is a repository of reference material that supports all other AMCA publications and standards. This standard serves as a collection of information that can be used in the development of other AMCA documents.

It is recommended that the definitions in this document be used in all standards and publications. However, standard and publication developing committees retain the authority to create and maintain a definition specific to their document.

AMCA 99 is available at the AMCA bookstore at www.amca.org/store. AMCA members receive a 50% discount on this and all items in the store. AMCA members should login to their account at <http://www.amca.org/members/login.aspx> before logging into the AMCA Store, ensuring their discount. Licenses for more than one person can be purchased while checking out, and a redline version showing what has changed will soon be available at the AMCA Store.

For more information regarding this publication, please contact Erin Moore at emoore@amca.org or +1 (847) 704-6285.
