AMCA INTERNATIONAL ANNOUNCES 2015–2016 PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, Ill., December 2, 2015 – The Air Movement and Control Association (AMCA) International Inc. announced that Tim Kilgore, President of Sales and Marketing, Greenheck Fan Corp., Wausau, Wis., is the 2015–2016 president of the AMCA Board of Directors.

Kilgore joined Greenheck in October 2005 after spending 24 years in the electrical equipment and electric motor industries. He began his career in engineering and sales roles with Westinghouse Electric Corporation. Later, he spent 17 years at L&S Electric, including 10 years as company president.

Kilgore is an active volunteer in the Wausau community, where he has served as president of the Rotary Club and chairman of the American Heart Association's Heart Walk. He was also formerly vice president of the Wausau Entrepreneurial and Education Center. Kilgore has held positions on the boards of the United Way of Marathon County, the North Central Technical College Foundation and the Wausau Youth Hockey Association.

The incoming president holds a bachelor's in industrial engineering from Purdue and an MBA from Marquette. He and his wife, Patty, have four adult children.

Kilgore said, "I am proud to serve AMCA and its members in its 99th year – a time of profound and exciting industry change and challenge. AMCA is more international than ever. Its membership size and diversity, as well as worldwide participation in the AMCA Certified Ratings Program, continue to grow. AMCA's mission is to promote the health, growth and integrity of the air systems industry. Despite all that is changing, this mission remains the foundation for all that we do."

AMCA also announced the members who will serve on the AMCA Executive Committee and AMCA Board of Directors in 2015–2016, which are listed below.

AMCA's 2015–2016 Executive Committee members are:
